

Math is about creativity
and making sense.

Math is a sense-making subject. You yourself can know if an answer is right by reasoning about it.

In math, there are multiple ways to solve a problem. If you finish a question, think of a different way to solve it, or pose another question!

— Jo Boaler